2023 Zinfandel, Paso Robles, bottled 12/24
Since 1967, and our first zinfandel from the Dusi Ranch, it is typically the first vineyard picked, a harbinger that harvest has begun. In 2023, however, despite warm spring weather, cooler summer temperatures persisted through September, resulting in one of the latest harvests here in the last 40 years. This cool weather during ripening did help retain acidity. Fruit forward and sumptuous, this exemplary zinfandel is best enjoyed on release and over the next five years. JO (11/24)

Ingredients: Hand-harvested grapes; indigenous yeasts; naturally occurring malolactic bacteria; oak from barrel aging; minimum effective SO₂.
